and afternoon sessions despite the frigid conditions in the railway committee room in the parliament buildings. It will meet again this morning.

Several members sat huddled in overcoats because of the heating in the buildings which make the railway room chilly than usual.

Due to Mr. Taylor's testimony, Herbert Marshall, Dominion statistician, appeared as the first witness. He said the price levels in Canada are lower than in almost all other countries for which figures are available.

Mr. Taylor's statement was emotionally comprehensive and probably will have a basis of much of the future work of the committee. Most observers considered it one of the clearest declarations on Canadian present basic economic problems made in some time.

On Taylor there were three specific factors bearing directly on the Canadian price structure:

1. The high cost of imports.
2. The fact that external prices largely determine the price of Canadian principal export commodities.
3. Internal factors affecting production and increased costs of production.

ON COST OF IMPORTS. Mr. Taylor pointed out, as did Mr. Marshall, that the general Canadian price level is below that of almost every other country in the world. Canada cannot export the quantities of things we have to import and many of our imports are of really important importance to our economy," he continued. "The prices of many of our basic imports have been rising at extraordinary rates during the last two years."

He cited petroleum with the price of 100-cent crude jumping more than 50 per cent in the last 20 months. Vegetable oils, from which Canadians get most of their soap and shoe polish, rose five times the pre-war price. Raw cotton is about four times higher.

On the influence of external prices, he first mentioned the rise in pork prices and said he was not aware of any other example. "The pre-war price of copper was about 10 cents a pound and now it is 20 cents a pound. The price of wheat was about four cents a pound pre-war and now they are 10 and 12, respectively."

He continued: "SIMILAR FIGURES, differing only in degree, could be given for almost all our export commodities—of the farm, the forest, the mines and the sea."

On the third point—internal factors—he mentioned the increase in the cost of materials as an element in the rise of production costs and added that labor costs have gone up at an average of four times.

He said it was hard to say how much. "During the last two years, we have been developing a real economic boom, particularly in the case of consumer and industrial material expenditures," he said.

The pressure of demand upon the supply of labor, materials and equipment used in industrial expansion has been and still is intense.

"This has produced a level of demand that is not only concerned about price—that is inclined to reduce price as a secondary consideration."

slant showed, last night's statement said, "that essentially Anglo-French policy was aimed not at weakening the forces of the peace-loving states for a common strategic advantage but at the expense of the peace-loving states."

Due to Mr. Taylor's testimony, the fact that the entire responsibility for the Munich policy of treachery was placed on the ruling circles of Britain and France, with the government of the United States as a "challenger" the Russian declaration.

THE FACT that the American government undertook to make the German film in the present Munich agreement, shows that the United States government is interested in whitewashing the heroes of the Munich treachery and putting the blame on the U.S.S.R.

The Information Bureau then quoted a document purporting to be a conversation between Hitler and Lord Halifax in the presence of the German foreign minister, Neurath, the German foreign minister, in October, 1938, 1939.

He declared that he, Lord Halifax, and other members of the British government were fully aware the Führer had attained a great victory in the Munich agreement, but he had destroyed Germany's position in Europe and Germany's position in the world.

He said that the British government was aware of the fact that the Munich agreement was a betrayal of the British people and that the British government was aware of the fact that the Munich agreement was a betrayal of the British people.

Cripps on Profits

principal organization of employers, has agreed to assist in the plan "to the utmost."

"We cannot disregard the fact that the distribution of large profits at a time when all sections of the community are struggling to exercise restraint as to their personal incomes," said Sir Stafford.

"I want to see a voluntary ceiling on all profits of goods which do not come within price control."

"REASONABLE PROFITS are a necessary part of any scheme for solving the whole economic system and create false values."

"We must have a restraint on profits can be shown by those who are not in a position to make profits, then there is a good chance of persuading the wage-and salary-earners to exercise restraint in the use of their money."

"Action in these two matters must be simultaneous... it is the great test of our democracy."

"We must take the immediate steps to avoid the dangers I have referred to. We can take them in a democratic way."

ONE OF THE STEPS proposed by the government was a ceiling at 10 per cent on the profits of manufacturers in 1948 level on manufacturers' prices of all goods which come within the control system but which lack a "sufficiently close" price control.

Parliamentary observers said that Sir Stafford's statement was issued partly to quiet trade union fears of a long and bitter struggle that the government places too much emphasis on stabilizing prices.

Without assuring that a profit-sharing scheme would be a sufficient guarantee of the exchequer, Sir Stafford Cripps, the leader of the Labour government, said that the government's own contribution had been no less serious.

Sicily Invasion Spectacular
Gamble, Alexander Now Reveals

By Stuart Underhill
LONDON, Feb. 12.—(CP)—Field Marshal Viscount Alexander, former commander-in-chief of the 15th Army group and now Canada's governor-general, said today that the spectacular invasion of Sicily was based on a plan which ignored the "fundamental principles" of capturing a large port as a supply base and which gambled on maintaining a large port as a supply base and which gambled on maintaining a large port as a supply base.

How HE PULLED off the gamble—later reported by Field Marshal Montgomery in Normandy—described in a dispatch on the Italian campaign by the British press, in which the 1st Canadian Division fought with the British Eighth Army.

The original invasion plans, drafted by British and United States troops were still driving Axis troops out of North Africa, envisioned a massive assault involving the early capture of the port of Messina.

The planning officers disagreed vigorously on the details, however, and Viscount Alexander, then commander of the 15th Army group, decided to "go all or nothing" and to "create the whole plan."

HE RESOLVED to concentrate his forces on the capture of the port of Messina, which meant that they would have to be supported over the mountains by the British Eighth Army.

He said that the British Eighth Army could be used to support the 15th Army group, but that the British Eighth Army could be used to support the 15th Army group.

X-Ray Examinations
Pass 400,000 Mark

Number of free chest X-rays taken by the Alberta Tuberculosis Association since the inauguration of its survey in 1943 passed the 400,000 mark Wednesday when close to 1,000 more Edmontonians visited the two units being operated in the city.

THE 400,000 PERSON to receive a free chest X-ray was Louis Dennis, 1908 12th street, who visited the unit at Westview hospital school about 2:30 o'clock Wednesday.

Mr. Dennis, 72-year-old retired carpenter, has never had his chest X-rayed before. He came to the service offered by the A.T.A. for the first time in 1943.

He has a residence in this city for the last 40 years, coming here from Ontario, where he was born. He has been a member of the A.T.A. since 1943.

He said that the A.T.A. has been a great help to him and that he has been a member of the A.T.A. since 1943.

Pie Tossing

counted and nearly 1,000 copies of the issue were published. A substitute issue was distributed.

LETTERS and PHONE calls have been received by The Bulletin, protesting both actions of the students and publication of pictures of the pie-tossing.

One reader wrote as follows: "The battered group of variety students, who were in the 75, is a fair representation of U. of A. students and their intellectual activities. I should think it is time they took stock of themselves."

W. H. Johns, assistant to Dr. Robert Newberry, said that the pie-tossing, having given a great deal of publicity to a very worthy campaign...

A news item of the previous day correctly stated the pie was made of non-flammable materials and that the eggs were well-matched, but the suggestion was made Saturday that the pie was made of non-flammable materials and that the eggs were well-matched.

However, as reported in last Friday's Bulletin, neither the pie nor the eggs were edible. The pie was made of an artificially-colored day.

The other health bill, under which the Alberta College of Physicians and Surgeons seek incorporation for the medical costs insurance plan will be sponsored in the legislature by Dr. J. L. McPherson, S.C.—Broom.

Mother Of Triplets
WESTFORD, Feb. 12.—(CP)—Mrs. Albert Schultz, of Seven Sisters, Pa., became the mother of triplets boy Tuesday in a Winnipeg hospital. Two of the babies weigh close to 5½ pounds each.

The units, which have visited or intend to visit plants all over the province, have been in Edmonton since last October and since that time 4,800 X-rays have been taken.

The unit X-ray about 150,000 persons a year and it is expected that the 500,000 mark will be reached before the end of 1948.

Operating the X-ray equipment at the Westview hospital were Mrs. T. Kuzik and Mrs. B. Martin. They work on shifts with four others when the unit is operating a full day.

Robert Pickney, general manager of the A.T.A. is in charge of the unit and E. B. Baxter organizes the service.

The two X-ray units were purchased by the Alberta Tuberculosis Association and operated with money raised through the Christmas fund-raising drive. The units are operated under the provincial department of public health.

THE NUMBER of persons X-rayed to date represents about half the population of Alberta. In all of Canada it is estimated that one out of every eight persons has received a free chest X-ray. Alberta stands second in the percentage X-rayed, being exceeded only by the Saskatchewan association.

Meat Prices Worry Livestock Circles

LETHBRIDGE, Alta., Feb. 12.—(CP)—The Lethbridge Herald said yesterday there was considerable uncertainty in western livestock circles over the federal government's failure to announce meat ceilings.

The newspaper said butter ceilings were announced immediately and now were in effect, but "nothing has been said about meat ceilings."

It continued: "Now comes word from Ottawa that the government and the boards handling the matter are of a mind to defer announcement of meat ceilings until April 1. At that time the present meat contracts with Britain will then be fixed, based upon any new contract which might be signed with Britain, or whether the recent slump in livestock prices on American markets will affect government policy in the matter will not be known for some time, it is expected."

The Herald said packer buyers have been tending to "sound down" the prices paid for livestock for fear meat ceilings will be below dressed meat prices based on live prices which they have been paying.

"The result is that cattle prices are off about a cent from the high of a month ago, and feedlot operators who have more than 40,000 cattle and 100,000 lambs on feed in this sugar beet area are growing anxious."

Annual Report Given

Produce More, Spend Less Bank's Advice to Canadians

By Forbes Rhude

OTTAWA, Feb. 12.—(CP)—Canadians were advised to produce more and spend less for non-essential purposes in today's annual report of the Bank of Canada.

"THE REPORT, addressed to Finance Minister Abbott from Governor Towers, governor, cautioned against heavy capital expenditures, stated that business is depending more on banks for financing; noted that provincial, municipal and corporate debts are up for the first time in years and said Canada needs to increase its foreign exchange holdings.

It said nothing about an increase in the present rate of 1½ per cent which it charges for money loaned to chartered banks, which had been rumored as a possibility as a deflationary move.

An increase remains a possibility and would be announced without warning, but it may be that decision on any such step would be deferred until the already-deflationary effects of the drop in United States commodities becomes clearer.

"THE REPORT commented: 'As in previous years, banks had little occasion to borrow from us.'"

The report seems to think it not practicable to lower prices down through controls when it says:

"Short of substantially appreciating its exchange rate and increasing its taxation, no country could have insulated itself completely from the world-wide rise in prices. Theoretically it might be contended that this could be done by means of direct controls, but these would have to be very much more rigorous and complete than those of wartime, to say the least."

No Definite Action, Postmaster Says

OTTAWA, Feb. 12.—(CP)—Postmaster-General Bertrand told the commonsense yesterday "no definite action" has been taken by the government toward the use of airmail for the carriage of all first-class mail between distant points in Canada.

Answering a question from Stanley Knowles (C.C.F.—Winnipeg North Centre), he added that constant consideration is being given to improving the postal service.

Gross earnings during the 1946-47 fiscal year were $3,800,000 with a provision of $1,200,000 for depreciation. During the nine months ending Dec. 31, 1947, gross earnings were more than $2,160,000.

To Hear Murder Case in March

WINNIPEG, Feb. 12.—(CP)—A tentative trial date of March 2 was set today for Clarence George Richardson, 26, charged with the Jan. 2 "snowbank" slaying of Mrs. Ann Varty, 28, after Mr. Justice W. J. Donovan left the way open for defence counsel to renew an application for postponement.

The Court of King's Bench judge said the defence could make a new request before Feb. 14 for postponement of the trial. Defence Counsel S. Hart Green told the court he could not prepare a case by March 2 since he had not yet received a transcript of the evidence at the preliminary hearing. Body of Mrs. Varty, mother of three children, was found in a snow bank on the outskirts of Winnipeg. She had died from skull injuries apparently inflicted with a hammer.

Pretty Tough Day For the General

NEW YORK, Feb. 12.—(CP)—Gen. A. G. L. McNaughton presided during nearly eight hours of wrangling in the United Nations Security Council yesterday. Then he took him 3 1/2 hours to get home over treacherous roads.

A LIST of average retail prices in December disclosed only a few Canadian items higher than in the United States.

These statistics were represented to the committee by Kenneth Taylor, a deputy minister of finance and chairman of the prices board.

The comparison was between the U.S. index of consumer prices and the Canadian cost-of-living index, which are approximately the same thing, with both taking the average of 1932-39 equals 100.

The Canadian index used in the statistics is for the first business day of each month while the U.S. index is for prices on the 15th day.

IN THE FOLLOWING figures, the U.S. are for Dec. 13, 1941, and the Canadian the average of Dec. 1, 1941, and Jan. 2, 1942.

Man Found Guilty Seditious Libel

NEWCASTLE-ON-TYNE, England, yesterday was convicted in supreme court of British Columbia of seditious libel. The jury deliberated only eight minutes.

Graham was charged with printing a 700-word handbill entitled: "Canadiana: swine, Borzoi, all Jews. Down with democracy." He will be sentenced at the end of the trial.

The jury ruled Graham guilty of inciting to "ill-will between different classes of His Majesty's subjects."

At the opening of the trial, Attorney-General Gordon S. Winner, warned that if anti-Semitism was allowed to continue unrestricted in Canada it could result in "progress and attacks" as seen in some foreign countries.

"If attacks on Jews such as the accused is alleged to have made are proper, there's no reason why tomorrow there may not be similar attacks on Orangemen or Roman Catholics," said Mr. Winner, whose appearance as counsel he emphasized the "gravity" with which the Crown viewed the offence.

Slump Will Hit Manitoba Port

SASKATOON, Feb. 12.—(CP)—Prospects for increased trade through the northern Manitoba port of Churchill this summer were described last night as not too bright where commodities other than wheat were concerned.

Frank Klason, secretary of the Hudson Bay Route Association, said he expected the shipping slump which now has hit east coast ports would touch Churchill and have an adverse effect on the association's efforts to promote increased use of the port.

And Some 'Helpful' Suggestions

Weatherman Has Troubles Galore

OTTAWA, Feb. 12.—(CP)—The weather is still the most unpredictable thing in the world—even the weatherman admits that.

One of the weather forecasters from the meteorological service of the department of transport, W. Gilmore Clark of Toronto, explained the weatherman's troubles to the science association here last night.

In the mail every morning comes detailed letters telling the forecaster he doesn't know what he's talking about. Others seek forecasts weeks in advance.

Then there are those who try to help. A Lethbridge, Alta., man offered to save the weather service a lot of trouble by forecasting the weather for the rest of the year—for a small sum.

One man wrote of his plan to "make perfect weather the year round." This would involve installation of "large tubular towers over the entire earth."

The order is part of a $25,000,000 government program to equip British pits with up-to-date machinery.

Money Bylaw Changes Also Under Fire

Edmonton Chamber of Commerce, through its civic betterment committee, will oppose the proposed changes to the city's bylaws which would, if enacted, provide for aldermen to be elected for four-year terms instead of the present two years.

THE CHAMBER will also oppose a move to reduce the majority required for the passage of a money bylaw to a straight instead of the two-thirds majority now required.

Proposals that aldermen be elected for four-year terms, and the reduction of the money bylaw majority were made by Mayor Harry Atkey at a recent meeting of the bylaws committee. Aldermen at that meeting unanimously rejected the proposals.

However, when the two questions came before city council last Monday, there was some discussion on eliminating the two-thirds majority in cases of money bylaws not exceeding $10,000. On this point the question was referred back to the finance committee.

A delegation from the Chamber of Commerce will appear before city council to voice opposition to the proposed amendments.
